RE: "Letter of Recommendation for Christopher C. Odom"

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to highly recommend Christopher C. Odom as a candidate for an opportunity with your company or organization. He is a talented writer, filmmaker and editor. He has always been a pleasure to work with. He and I first met in 2004 when we joined forces with a group of likeminded individuals to create and produce an original TV pilot titled "On Location". In the time we've worked together he has always demonstrated his ability to be creative, punctual and extremely passionate about creating quality projects his friends and family could be proud of. My professional development and production background encompasses working with David Letterman, Dick Wolf, Spike Lee, Dolly Hall, Jamie Babbit, Robert A. Egan and their productions. My feature producing credits include the International and Domestic Ariztical Entertainment Group release, "Maggie & Annie", "23rd Psalm" & "23 Psalm: Redemption".

I believe Christopher is qualified candidate because his intellectual prowess has been the beacon of his success. He brings a positive attitude and a friendly face to any work environment. I'm providing this letter of recommendation because I believe in his abilities to get the job done and to remain steadfast on the task at hand.

Christopher is currently a professor of screenwriting at Full Sail University. He is also a graduate of UCLA with a Master of Fine Arts in Film, Television and Digital Media. As a producer and partner at Odom-Booker Entertainment, he's an international and domestic multi-award-winning independent filmmaker, whose work has been televised and screened in cities worldwide, including Tel Aviv, Berlin, Cannes, Los Angeles and New York. His Odom-Booker feature film, 23RD PSALM, won several awards, including "Best Picture" in Berlin and San Diego. His screenplays also have accumulated numerous accolades and awards. Most recently, "23rd Psalm: Redemption", the sequel to "23rd Psalm", with Tatyana Ali and Clifton Powell.

Again, I highly recommend Christopher for an opportunity with your organization, as he would be a valuable asset to any company who makes an investment in him. With his no retreat, no surrender attitude, the job will unequivocally get done. I would personally jump at the opportunity to work with Mr. Odom again to absorb his abundant wealth of knowledge and structure. I am more than happy to provide any additional information if needed. I can be reached by phone or email at the contact information below.

Sincerely,

Cornelius Booker III
