

August 23, 2013

Re: Letter of Recommendation for Christopher C. Odom

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in support of Christopher C. Odom, who in my professional opinion, should be a prime candidate for a position within your company or organization. My name is Princeton E. Holt and I am an independent film producer and the CEO of One Way or Another Productions. I have worked with Christopher for over 5 years on several projects. One of those times he was hired by my company where he served as co-producer of our feature film The 10 COMMANDMENTS OF CHLOE, as well as Director of Photography. He was given full reign over the entire look of the film, which went on to win 8 international awards.

As a professional, Christopher is one of the hardest working people I have ever worked with. He is a jack of all trades, but the master of many. He owns his own company, is a teacher, is a writer, is a producer, and has seen success in the independent film distribution world – no easy feat these days. Christopher is always prompt, has a great attitude, but most important of all, he loves what he does. I have found that it is one thing to be good at what you do, but it's entirely another thing to actually love what you do. His passion translates into pristine work.

As it relates to writing, he would make a great teacher. The 10 COMMANDMENTS OF CHLOE, the film we co-produced together recently, won 2 screenwriting awards – Best Screenplay at the Los Angeles Movie Awards, and the World Cinema Screenwriting Award at the Amsterdam Film Festival. He understands that before the cameras are even turned on, it all has to be on the page in written form first.

His work communicates to mass audiences (aka strangers). If there is any one I know that would be great for a position that allows him to continue to share his spirit and knowledge with people in schools and in the community through screenwriting, it hands down would be him.

I am available in case you have any further questions. Thank you for your time!

Sincerely,

Princeton Holt
CEO, One Way or Another Productions

